What happens...

I like to introduce dogs a week or so before boarding begins, (but whenever suits you best is fine), so that we all have the peace of mind that we - and they - will feel comfortable in their new pawliday home, with me, and with my friendly, resident dogs, Iris, Davy and Dolly. Meet and Greets are free, and can take as long as is needed (or not), but please allow at least 10-15 minutes of your time.

Host dogs: Iris, an AmbullStaff female, 14 (centre)
Davy, a Mini Schnauzer male, 2, (left)
Dolly, a Mini Schnauzer female, 1, (right)

Please arrive on time, and if you can't, please text to let me know when, so I can ensure any dogs here are relaxed and ready.

You'll bring your dog(s) in to my designated meet & greet area (rear gate entrance) to meet me without Iris, Davy and Dolly at first, then let your dog(s) off lead/s to have a good sniff and run around to get them accustomed to their new environment and its smells. After giving them the time they need, I will bring my dogs outside, on a lead to start, and one at a time, (you should put your own dog/s lead/s back on at this point), then we can let the rear-end sniffing commence! We can then let all dogs off lead again so the newly acquainted Pawfolks can get to know each other, and we can see how they get on. You can then tell me more about what you need, and ask me any questions you may have.

We live at Cobweb Cottage, Scott's Corner, Panxworth, NR13 6JF and you can find us easily on Google Maps, by searching for Pawfolk Ltd. There is ample space to park, and the doorbell can be found on the back gate.
